

Official Canvass

The canvass is a meeting held by the legislative body holding the election. This is a City Council for City Elections or the County Commission for County Elections.

This meeting can be held as early as 7 days after an election or as late as 14 days after an election, and is open to the public.

Between election night and the day of the canvass, additional by-mail ballots and provisional ballots are processed, counted and added to the vote totals.